MEDIA RELEASE

Office of the Chief of Police
West Miami, FL

April 25th, 2012 @ 11:00am

The City of West Miami Police Department received information yesterday afternoon (04/24/12) of an alleged threat against Senator Marco Rubio. The Senator resides within our City and our Police Department has initiated additional patrols in the area of his home and will cooperate fully with any investigation conducted by the U.S. Capitol Police Department. There have been no incidents at the Senator's home, nor has the West Miami Police Department received any threats towards the Senator or his family.

Questions pertaining to any investigative action should be directed to the U.S. Capitol Police Department. The West Miami Police Department remains committed to the safety, protection, and well-being of Senator Rubio, his family, as well as to all of the residents of West Miami.
